

Alex Zinni: A Renaissance Man of Integrity, Entrepreneurship, and Philanthropy

Alex Zinni: A Renaissance Man of Integrity, Entrepreneurship, and Philanthropy

Alex Zinni is a multifaceted individual whose blend of sharp business acumen, inherent goodness, and deep commitment to community service makes him a standout figure in both his professional and personal life.

Early Life and Education

Alex is a graduate of Case Western Reserve University, where he studied English and Business. Entrepreneurship runs in his blood, inspired by his grandfather, who founded Richmond Heights Hospital, and his father, who served as the hospital's President & CEO. Spending time with his father, playing in his office, listening to his interactions, and observing him run a large operation, ignited Alex's passion for business.

Professional Journey

At the age of 25, Alex founded Alpha Key Digital, a company specializing in website design, development, and digital marketing. Under his leadership, Alpha Key Digital has grown significantly, tripling in size over the last year. The company's local clients include the Euclid Chamber of Commerce, Case Western Reserve University, Deepwood Industries, Vanek Plastic Surgery, Monreal Funeral Home, McDowell Homes, and Vineyard Woods. On a national level, Alex's organization counts RayBan, Cosmopolitan Magazine, and Warner Brothers among its clientele.

Despite his strong business sense and the cutting-edge technology he offers, Alex is most known for his integrity. One notable instance of this is when he turned down a lucrative offer from a client's competitor to maintain his commitment to his existing client, a testament to his character.

Alex Zinni: A Renaissance Man of Integrity, Entrepreneurship, and Philanthropy

Philanthropy and Community Service

Alex is deeply committed to giving back to his community. His volunteer activities are as varied as his considerable skill set. He has volunteered for Habitat for Humanity in Eastlake, the Immaculate Conception Church in Willoughby, the Brite Winter Music Festival in Cleveland, the Young Catholic Leaders of Cleveland, and Case Western Reserve's Veale Institute for Entrepreneurship. He has also served as a board member of the Mentor Area Chamber of Commerce and is currently a board member of the Willoughby Western Lake County Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, he is involved with the American Advertising Federation, United Way of Lake County's marketing committee, and is a member of Leadership Lake County's class of 2023.

Musical Talent

In addition to his business and philanthropic endeavors, Alex is an extraordinarily talented musician. He is a singer, songwriter, and multi-instrumentalist, playing the guitar, bass guitar, harmonica, and keyboard. His musical journey began at the age of 14 when his band played at the Rock 'n Roll Hall of Fame. Alex later formed and fronted his own band, Bro Dylan, writing over 100 songs, with 40 available on Spotify. Though Bro Dylan has since retired, Alex continues to perform acoustically and is a member of the Cleveland band Apostle Jones, a popular Rock 'n Soul Ensemble.

Personal Life

Alex Zinni: A Renaissance Man of Integrity, Entrepreneurship, and Philanthropy

Alex's deep appreciation for the simple joys in life extends to his intense love for his family and his dog, Ares. Those who know Alex are better for it, as he quietly makes a positive impact on everyone around him with his humility and sincerity.

Alex Zinni is not just a successful entrepreneur but a modern-day Renaissance man whose integrity, philanthropy, and talent make him an exceptional leader and community member. His blend of professional excellence and personal goodness sets him apart as a role model and an inspiration.